The Parties have expressly acknowledged that both the rules set out by laws applicable to joint stock companies on the confidentiality of information and the fiduciary duties of directors and statutory auditors, and the specific provisions on insider information and market manipulation set forth under Articles 180 et seq. of the CFA shall apply to Nexi and the members of its corporate bodies. Without prejudice to the punctual compliance with the above provisions, Nexi's directors designated by each single Investor may share with their respective designees, subject to the signing of relevant confidentiality agreements, the information in their possession where required to enable Investors to fulfil, among other things, obligations vis-à-vis persons who invested in the investment funds managed by them, the related reporting and disclosure obligations imposed under any laws applicable to them.

5.4. Transfer restriction of shares of Nexi

For so long as Mercury holds any shares of Nexi, Mercury will be entitled to Transfer shares of Nexi to third parties (i.e., entities other than a person which controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with Mercury) only (i) with Advent and Bain's consent, should such transfer of shares enable the Investors to achieve a return equal to their initial investment in Nexi (to be calculated assuming to sell 100% of Nexi's share capital at the price per share equal to the most recent disposition) at least equal to the Floor Price, and (ii) with each Investors' consent (i.e., Advent, Bain and Clessidra) where the return on the initial investment in Nexi is lower than the Floor Price.

Upon expiration of the third anniversary of the listing of the shares of the Company, should Mercury still hold shares of Nexi, or, prior to such expiration date, should from the average market price of the shares of Nexi for 7 (seven) consecutive trading days arise a valuation of Nexi's capital lower than the Floor Price, each Investor will have the right to require that a number of shares of Nexi proportional to the share capital portion in Mercury held, directly or indirectly, by it is assigned to each Investor (or alternatively, the net proceeds received from the sale of shares of Nexi completed by Mercury).

On completion of such Transfer, should any Investor hold, directly or indirectly, a stake higher than 5% of share capital of Nexi, such Investor will enter into an agreement including (i) an orderly market clause aimed at granting that the disposal of the stake which includes the shares so assigned is made with means of execution such that a smooth functioning of the market is assured, and (ii) a tag-along right will be granted to each of the other Investors which still hold at such date at least 5% of the share capital of Nexi. The previous undertaking will not affect any Investor which, directly or indirectly, at such date, hold a stake lower than 5% of the share capital of Nexi.

5.5. Mercury de-merger

The Parties undertook to discuss in good faith a potential mechanism (which may involve an actual transfer of shares in Nexi, or may be a synthetic transfer) pursuant to which Fides S.p.A. would be able to hold or otherwise cause the sale (for its sole benefit) of its own indirect shareholding in Nexi through Mercury, provided that such mechanism, inter alia, shall be compliant with any applicable restrictions under agreements entered into by Mercury.

6. Duration of the Shareholders' Agreement

The Shareholders' Agreement, which remains governed by English law, was entered into on March 11, 2019 and, pursuant to art. 123 of the CFA, has a duration of three years starting from the date of admission to negotiation of the ordinary shares of Nexi on the “Mercato Telematico Azionario” organized and managed by Borsa Italiana S.p.A.

The provisions relating to Nexi's governance under paragraph 5.2 above, as regulated by the Deed of Amendment, which was entered into on November 15, 2020, have a duration of three years starting from the aforesaid date of execution of the Deed of Amendment.
