Nordea and Nets extend their long-term partnership in Denmark and Finland

Nordea and Nets have entered into a new agreement, further extending their long-term partnership in Finland and Denmark for the provision of state-of-the-art payment services. Nets will deliver card issuing, processing, fraud prevention and detection, dispute handling, digital solutions, and managed services, for all of Nordea's card products, including Dankort in Denmark.

"We are pleased that the largest bank in the Nordics has decided to continue to partner with us and further develop our mutual ambitions in providing engaging payment experiences across the full customer journey. Using Nets' innovative and best-in-class processing services, we look forward to serving Nordea's Nordic business for many years to come," says Torsten Hagen Jørgensen, Chief Executive Officer of Issuer & eSecurity Services at Nets Group.

Nets is an experienced technology expert with the latest know-how and capabilities, providing high engagement and modern, flexible payment solutions that enable banks to meet the demand for safe, frictionless digital banking experiences across Europe and the Nordics.

The long-term agreement has already entered into force.
